

Exhibitor Criteria

The Lardner Park Garden & Home Expo aims to inspire, educate and connect the community by showcasing quality products, services and ideas for the home, garden and outdoor lifestyle. We are committed to supporting local businesses, industry professionals and community organisations while providing visitors with an engaging, informative and enjoyable event experience. Our core values are centred on quality, innovation, sustainability, education, community connection and creating a diverse exhibitor mix that reflects the purpose and spirit of the Expo.

All exhibitor applications are subject to review and approval by Lardner Park. To ensure the integrity and quality of the Garden & Home Expo, applications must align with the event's core values and objectives. Lardner Park reserves the right to accept or decline any exhibitor application that, in its sole discretion, does not align with the purpose, standards, or overall mix of the event. The decision of Lardner Park regarding exhibitor selection and suitability is final, and no correspondence will be entered into
