

Telstra Women in Ag Lunch - 2022

Claire Moore

Corrinne Armour

Caitlin Radford

Join us at the Telstra Women in Ag Luncheon at Farm World, Lardner Park - hear from some inspirational speakers, and connect with a room full of amazing women.

For 2022 we have three fabulous speakers with three very different backgrounds. They will engage, inspire and motivate you with their personal and professional journeys. Their stories are from the heart and will challenge you to think outside the box, believe in your abilities and provide some real life, day to day experiences - both the trials and celebrations. It's an afternoon for fabulous networking in a casual and charismatic environment over a delicious lunch and a glass of wine. So grab your friends, round up your colleagues and book your tickets online now.

Location: Events Centre, Lardner Park (155 Burnt Store Rd, Lardner)
Date/Time: Thursday 24th March from 11.45am - 2.30pm
Tickets: $65*pp includes entry to Farm World, lunch and a beverage on arrival

*Book a table of 8 for $500

plus booking fee -*

<https://lardnerpark.com.au/>

Please join us for the Welcome to Country Ceremony which will be performed in the Events Centre forecourt prior to the lunch function at 11:30am

Strategic Partners

Farm World Sponsors

Telstra Women in Ag Lunch - 2022

Claire Moore

Founder and CEO of Sweet Justice, Claire teaches commercial beekeeping within Victoria's justice system and then leads participants into supported employment in commercial beekeeping.

Claire is a passionate advocate for the beekeeping industry and honeybee health and is one of the state's leading queen breeders.

Claire's work in the beekeeping industry earned her the 2019 Agrifutures Victorian Rural Woman of the Year award and the 2021 Rotary Environmental Sustainability Award.

Corrinne Armour

Speaker, trainer, coach, facilitator. Corrinne works with senior leaders and teams from a diverse range of industries, such as finance, government, construction, health, education, arts and aged care.

Corrinne has positive energy, is a direct communicator and her real world experience will enthrall you.

She lives in West Gippsland and is married to an ex-guerrilla fighter. Balancing work, family and farm lifewe can all relate to these challenges!

Caitlin Radford

Caitlin was awarded the 2020 Australian Apprentice of the Year - she is also undertaking a diploma of agribusiness and is an ambassador for VET training and women. Caitlin's other pursuits include being the vice-chairman of Agfest Field Days.

Caitlin now runs her own agricultural company in Tasmania after working on the family farm with the support of her parent's and grandfather.

Caitlin is a proud representative of women and young people in agriculture.

Please join us for the Welcome to Country Ceremony which will be performed in the Events Centre forecourt prior to the lunch function at 11:30am

Strategic Partners

Farm World Sponsors

